

Every Voice Matters: Piecing Together Strong Wraparound Teams

Emily Clark, LCSW

Taylor Kyle, LPC

Tiffany Neamo, Case Manager

SHINEFORTH

A graphic of several orange puzzle pieces on a light blue background. On the left, a vertical column of four pieces is shown, with the second piece from the top missing. Below this column is a horizontal row of three pieces. The missing piece is shown floating in the center, tilted at an angle, with its interlocking shapes clearly visible. The text 'Puzzle Activity' is positioned to the right of the puzzle pieces.

Puzzle Activity

Workshop Objectives

What is Wraparound?

Why do teams matter?

How do we collaborate?

How do we engage with shared accountability?

High Fidelity Wraparound

A team-based, collaborative process for developing and implementing individualized care plans for children with behavioral health challenges, and their families.

HFW Framework

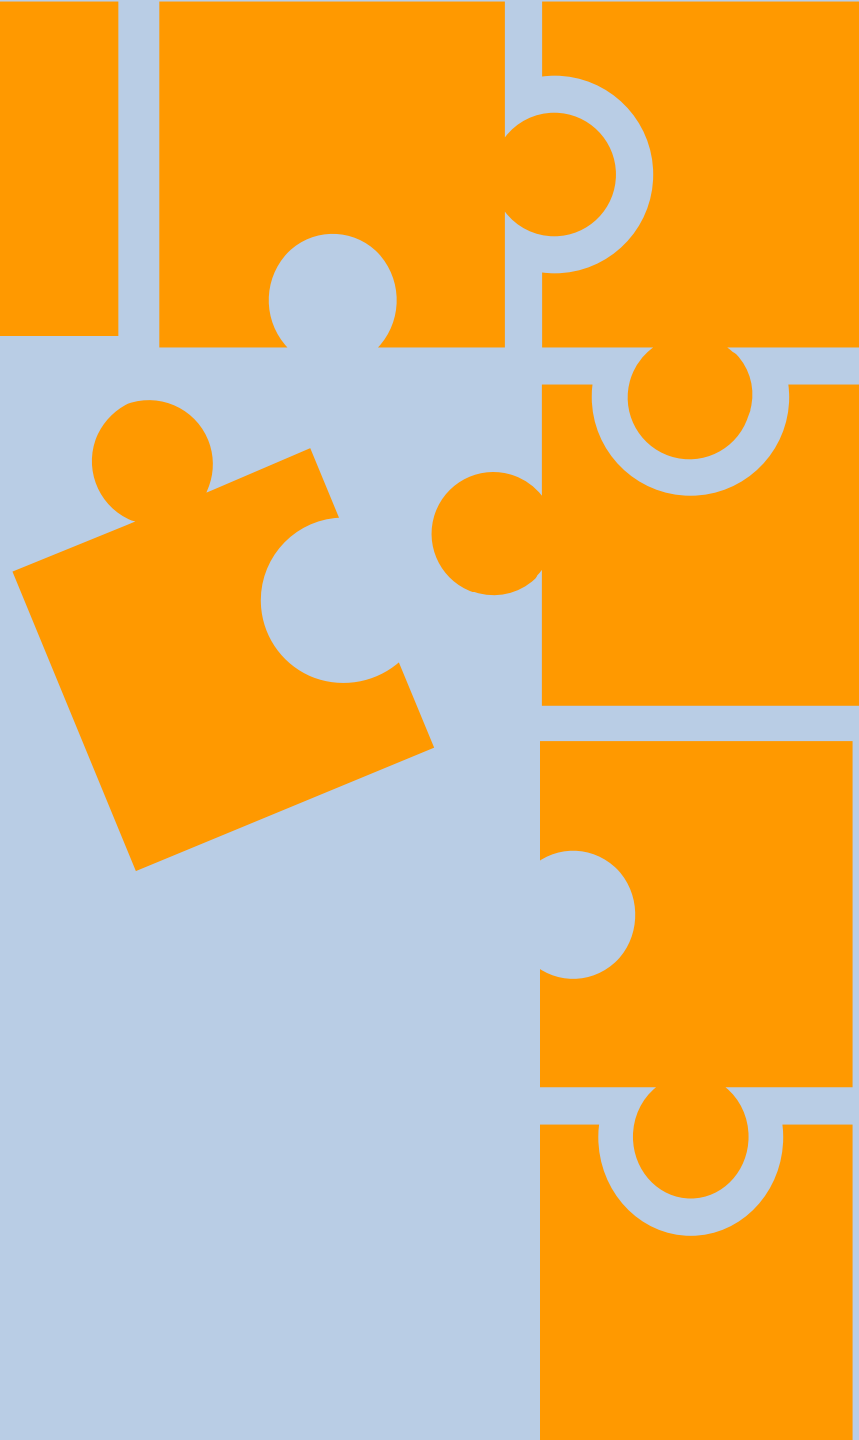

Who Is On The HFW Team?

- ✓ The youth and family
- ✓ HFW workforce
- ✓ Case managers
- ✓ Natural supports
- ✓ System/agency partners

ICC Facilitator	Family/Youth Support Partner	Agency Case Manager
Orients youth, family and all team members to HFW. Collects information from youth, family and team members on strengths, needs and culture.	Uses lived experience to build trusting relationship. Gathers information from family and youth to ensure family and youth voice in process.	Knows historical information and assessment data. Often has long-standing relationship with youth and family.
Preps family and all team members prior to each team meeting.	Meets with the family and youth to identify their prioritized needs.	Expert on system (permanency, safety, court, school, etc.) needs and concerns; essential for an integrated plan.
Facilitates the monthly HFW Family Team meetings.	Ensures youth and family voice drives team meetings. Reminds team of youth and family strengths and culture.	Participates in monthly HFW team meetings, is the link to the bigger system.
Guides planning process and follows up with all team members on their action steps. Monitors fidelity to the HFW framework.	Assists family and youth with completing their action steps + have their own action steps.	Attends HFW team meetings, have action steps on the plan. Assures planning aligns with system mandates.
Ensures all team members are kept informed and engaged. Ongoing communication with youth, family and team members.	Helps build and repair relationships; does the team understand the youth/family and does the youth/family understand the team?	Ongoing case management duties. Keeps team up to date on system/agency progress and concerns.
Ensures the family and team are progressing towards family vision and team mission and guides transition planning.	Transfers skills...Do For, Do With, Cheer On...!!	Contributes agency expectations related to transition. Ongoing link to bigger system.

Role Matchup Activity

Why Teams Matter

- Shared Responsibility
- Diverse Perspectives
- Coordinated Support
- Improved Outcomes
- Empowerment

Communication & Respect

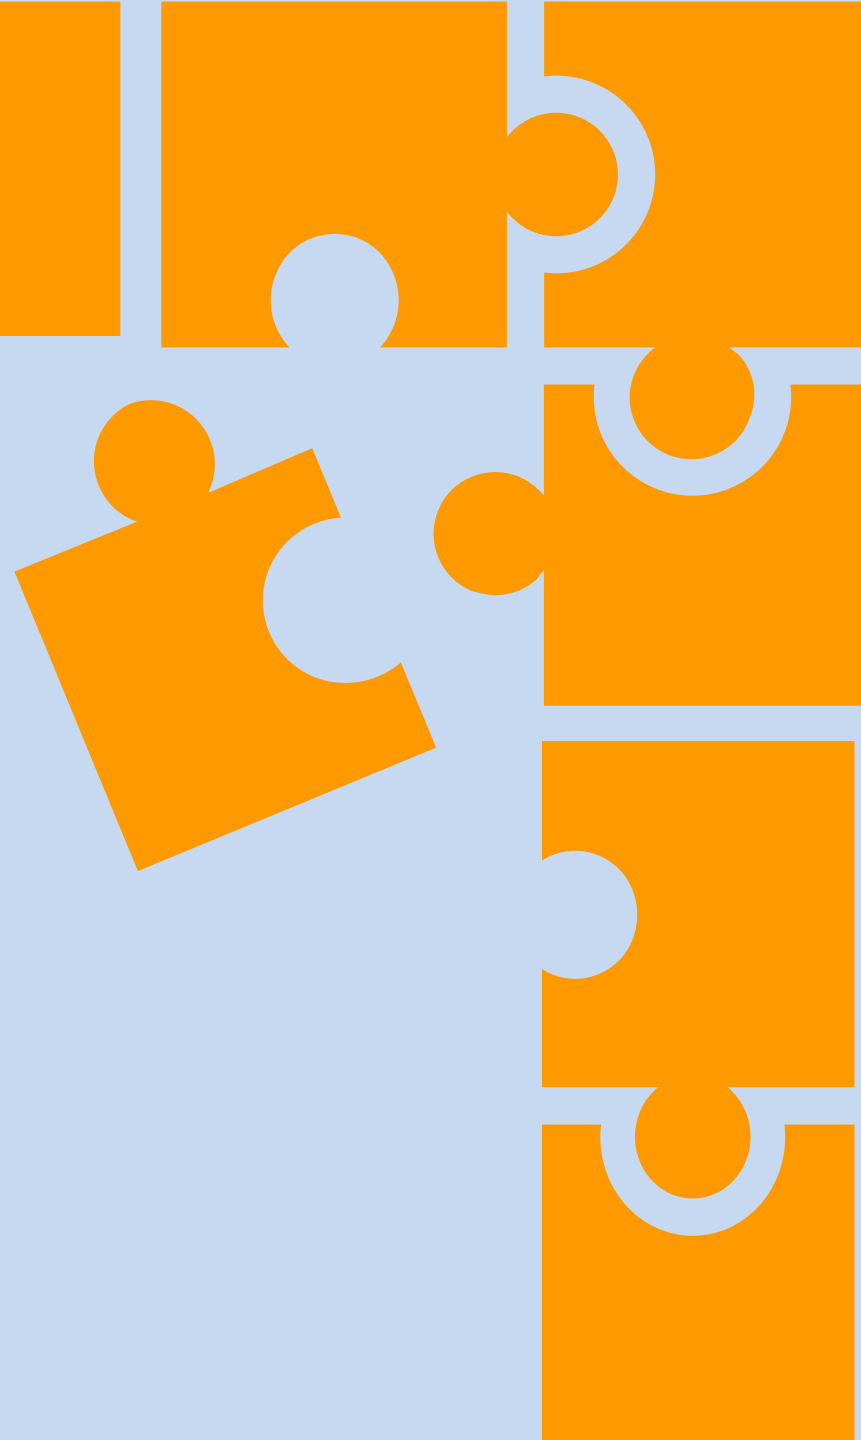

Shared Responsibility & Accountability

ICC is a teams-based approach where success is guided by team participation to support the family vision through several aspects

- Team Mission
- Ground Rules
- Celebrations
- Brainstorming
- Action Steps

Collaboration in Action

A graphic of several orange puzzle pieces on a light blue background. On the left, there is a vertical column of four pieces. At the bottom, there is a horizontal row of four pieces. A fifth piece is positioned between the column and the row, slightly offset and tilted. The text 'Thank You!' is located to the right of the puzzle pieces.

Thank You!